

Code of Ethics

We at Fallen Diggers Incorporated maintain that our social responsibility and patriotic duty includes recognising the importance of preserving Australia's military history and honouring all ADF members past and present.

1	Fallen Diggers Incorporated are obliged to honour the rules as laid out by the model rules for an incorporated association under the Victorian Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012
2	Fallen Diggers Inc. will respect wishes about privacy, confidentiality and non-disclosure
3	Fallen Diggers Inc. will act honourably towards other military researchers and historians and the field as a whole
4	Fallen Diggers Inc. should acknowledge help from others and respect their request for privacy, except where compulsion of law requires disclosure
5	Personal information from all persons making contributions or donations will not be passed onto a third party
6	Fallen Diggers Inc. will issue a receipt for all donations that are received
7	Acknowledgement of all donations will be posted on facebook unless the person/company requests to remain anonymous
8	All funds raised for Fallen Diggers Inc. are for research and administrative purposes only
9	Six monthly financial reports on Fallen Diggers Inc. will be made available on our website
10	All complaints and concerns are to be brought to the attention of our Secretary, Mr Dennis Frank at dennis@fallendiggers.com.au . Attention to these issues will be handled in a professional manner and held in strictest confidence

